

Meet Your Department proudly presents...

Jacque Yates

Jacqueline Yates has been with Millbrook Fire since March of 2009. She also works as an Emergency Care Tech at Baptist South and spent 7 years at Care Ambulance as an AEMT.

During her time at Millbrook Fire, Jacque won EMT of the Year in 2010 and the prestigious Chief's Award in 2018. This award is decided upon by Chief Larry Brown and is given to a member he believes has shown outstanding dedication, work-ethic and drive.

Jacque and Darin will be celebrating their 34th wedding anniversary this month. They have two highly accomplished children together: Tawnya, 29, a microbiologist with a private company and Shawn, 26, who's pursuing his PhD at Auburn.

Jacque is an avid kayaker and spends her free time helping friends with just about anything. She is described by her co-workers as caring, exuberant and fun. Thank you for all you do for the Millbrook Fire Department, Jacque!

