

Meet Your Department proudly presents...

Travis Fezatte

Travis Fezatte has been a full-time EMT for 7 years and is currently working for Haynes Ambulance. He's been back volunteering at Millbrook since July of 2017 as a firefighter-AEMT.

AEMT Fezatte volunteered for Millbrook Fire from 2008-2013. He left to join the Army and served from 2013 - 2017 as a medic. He spent some time in Korea and says he misses the food the most!

Travis's supportive mother, Cyndi and loving grandmother, Lois could not be prouder of his service to his country and his community.

He enjoys spending his free time hunting and playing paintball.

Travis is described as patriotic, resilient and resourceful. "The type of guy that you rely on in a stressful situation."

Thank you for your dedication and service to the Millbrook Fire Department, Travis!
