

Meet Your Department proudly presents...

James Shrader

Sgt James Shrader has been with Millbrook Fire since February of 2006. He also works as a reserve officer with the Millbrook Police Department and has served as one for a total of 5 years.

During his time at Millbrook Fire, James won Firefighter of the Year in 2007 and has been promoted to Sergeant. He's responsible for identifying inoperable equipment and verifying his truck is in working order at all times.

James was an amateur boxer for over 6 yrs and now spends his free time hunting and fishing. He and his adorable 3 yr old son, Jeremiah, enjoy watching PJ mask and exploring the fire apparatus together.

James is described as sociable, dedicated and helpful. He spends much of his time volunteering and helping to cover shifts at the department. Thank you for all you do for the Millbrook Fire Department, James!

